DOUGLAS'S GREAT VICTORY SHOWS LABOR VOTE CONTROLS STATE

CONGRESSMAN HEARST WINS, 11,397 PLURALITY

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—One of the most remarkable features in connection with today's election was the manner in which Representative William Randolph Hearst's candidacy upheld the entire West Side and saved it from going down to the east, which involved several other Democratic strongholds in the city. Mr. Hearst's total vote was 28,397, while that of his opponent, Henry Clay Pierce, was an even 15,000, making Mr. Hearst's plurality 13,397. Mr. Hearst, as a candidate for reelection to the House of Representatives from the 11th of New York, has a record of 11,397 votes, which was greater than the total of Judge Parker, and greater by 500 than Judge Herick.

that while there are in Manhattan eleven Congressional districts, only three of which are Democratic, Mr. Hearst's district gave Judge Parker more than one-third of its majority in this city. The other seven Congressional districts gave Judge Parker less than one-third of its majority in Manhattan.

The district stood staunchly against the flood of Republicanism being that expected about to deluge the entire city. Where other districts were over in the flood of Republicanism, the district stood staunchly against the flood of Republicanism being that expected about to deluge the entire city. Southwesterly a cutting from the voting population and the reduction of the Democratic vote to many thousands in every district. Mr. Hearst was elected by a majority estimated at 12,000 in every part of his district he ran far ahead of his ticket. In the Eleventh Assembly district he received 100 more votes than Judge Parker, and a corresponding lead over the head of the ticket, now shown on many other Assembly districts.

Judge Herick received a much larger vote than Judge Parker, and Mr. Hearst needed a larger vote than Judge Herick and a much larger vote than the head of the ticket.

General View of Result of Election in This State as Expressed by Analysis of the Vote—Tremendous Power of Workers Shown in Overwhelming Defeat of Bates.

The remarkable victory of William L. Douglas, the Democratic Governor-Elect of Massachusetts, has demonstrated that the control of the State lies in the hands of organized labor.

Democratic leaders to day strike the election of Mr. Douglas in a large measure to the confidence reposed in him by the union labor element throughout the State, as well as his attitude on the trust and reciprocity issues. Among those who have expressed their views on his election to-day are Colonel William A. Gaston, Democratic candidate for Governor in 1902 and 1903, and Judge John J. Flaherty, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic State Committee.

The Great Power of the Labor Unions.

"One of the most important lessons in the election of Mr. Douglas was the confidence of labor in his sympathetic attitude toward their interests," said Judge Flaherty today to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter.

"It is apparent from this election that the labor unions, when aroused politically, are a great

SURPRISES IN THE VOTE IN NEW YORK

Boston American Lensed Wire.
NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Practically complete returns from every borough of Greater New York show that the Democrats carried the city for Parker by a plurality of 33,327, and for Herick by 9,424. These figures are for the whole city, with but one election district out of 158 showing a Republican majority. Manhattan and the Bronx gave Roosevelt 124,410, and for Parker they only cast 108,111 votes, giving him a plurality of about 16,300 in the heart of the city.
Brooklyn, too, contributed its quota of votes to Roosevelt, for instead of turning in a majority for the head of the Democratic ticket, the vote completely stumped Roosevelt, 131,401; Parker, 111,500.
In New York State Roosevelt has the memorable plurality of 190,579, getting over 10,000 votes more than McKinley in his sweeping victory of 1900. The tremendous Republican enthusiasm aroused by Roosevelt's candidacy carried the Republican State ticket through with its President-elect, Frank Hughes was elected governor by a plurality of 73,507, running off the beaten Roosevelt in all but six counties, but losing through by a safe margin through the action of the President-elect, Roosevelt, who was elected by a plurality of 1,000,000, and a corresponding lead over the head of the ticket, now shown on many other Assembly districts.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY TO JACOB MORSE

Jacob Morse, senior member of the firm of Leopold Morse & Co., and chairman of the Board of Trustees for the city of Boston, died suddenly at 3 o'clock this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. J. Dreyfus, in South road, Brookline.
Mr. Morse apparently was in his usual health yesterday, and was at the Eltham Club on Huntington avenue until 11 o'clock last night.
Funeral services will be held at the Dreyfus residence on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be at Wakefield, and a train that leaves the North Station at 11:50 o'clock will allow friends to arrive in time for services at the grave.
Mr. Morse left a widow, three sons and four daughters. The children are M. M., J. R., and Julius C. Morse, Mrs. E. J. Dreyfus, Mrs. A. L. Fisher, Mrs. F. Fisher and Miss Jacob Morse.
Jacob Morse was seventy-five years old. He came to this country fifty years ago on a sailing vessel, making the trip in twenty-eight days, which was considered fast for that time. He was engaged in business in Boston, so he came directly to this city. After a week here he went to started in business for himself in that city.
Lately, however, he was confined to the firm in 1872 and in 1873 on the death of Aaron Morse, for the vice president of the manufacturing department. When Leopold Morse entered Congress, Jacob Morse assumed charge of the business, and in 1875, on the death of Leopold, he became the senior partner.

ROOSEVELT IN RHODE ISLAND

DEFEATS GARVIN BY NARROW PLURALITY IN GREAT CONTEST.

SPECIAL TO THE BOSTON AMERICAN.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 9.—Governor L. F. C. Garvin has been defeated for re-election by Lieutenant Governor George H. Utter.

Official reports from all the districts in the State give Utter a plurality of 594 over Garvin. Mayor Miller, Democrat, is re-elected by a plurality of 546.

The contest was so close between the two candidates for Governor that it was almost upon the result could be positively announced to-day. It was apparent much earlier, however, that neither man could win by a mere

PAPER MAN.

Governor-elect Utter is editor and proprietor of the Worcester Sun, a newspaper published in the most southerly town in Rhode Island. He has been active in politics for many years, and is generally regarded as the most forceful center in the Republican party in Rhode Island. He was elected Lieutenant Governor last year and became the logical candidate of his party this Fall.

During the heated campaign through which the State has passed, the Utter has been attacked daily from the stump, and has himself been a number of the spot under fire, speaking in various parts of the State and in the State house. He was severely criticized by the Democratic members for an editorial which appeared in his paper during the recent campaign, in which he had the audacity to state that the most that was to be expected of the State was that it should be a better place than it was.

His reply has been that he said the State was made up of the best of the people, and that he was not a member of the State house, but a member of the State house. He has been a prominent one in the campaign and as public sentiment in Rhode Island was strongly sympathetic with the Utter, the result was not surprising. power in the Commonwealth.

Col. Gaston also gave the labor unions credit for much of the Douglas strength. He also expressed the belief that the personality of the candidate and the appeal made to business interests by his attitude on reciprocity and the trusts was in some measure responsible. He said:

"Personal Victory for Douglas.

"The election is a great personal victory for Mr. Douglas and a tribute to his personality. One of the principal reasons which contributed to his success was his attitude on the reciprocity question, which appeared in a large body of business men, one of the most important of which was the fact that he was a man of the people and that he was a man of the people."

"It may be said that there are three reasons for the election of Mr. Douglas. They are: First, the fact that democracy was a popular movement in this State. Second, Governor Bates's growing unpopularity. Third, the fact that Mr. Douglas was a man of the people."

"Plurality in State 35,645.

The revised figures give Mr. Douglas a plurality in the State of 35,645 and a plurality in Boston of 35,629. In the State Mr. Douglas received 61,200 votes against 25,555 for Governor Bates. In Boston Mr. Douglas received 41,200 votes against 5,355 for Governor Bates.

NOT TOO BUSY TO REMEMBER HIS GRANDSON

In spite of the fact that W. I. Douglas was yesterday paid the greatest compliment that the people of Massachusetts can pay to such a wholehearted way that even his best and closest friends were surprised, the Governor-elect had his mind for some time on his family. Before he reached Montalto to-day, where he was received with hands, cheering relatives and the delectable shows of a tremendous multitude, he remembered to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter:

My grandson, Robert Douglas Russell, will be six months old to-morrow. I must get him a present while I am in Boston."

Robert Douglas Russell is a son of Harry H. Russell and Mr. Douglas's daughter Marion. But Mr. Douglas's favorite is his other grandson, the first one, William Douglas Russell, who is now two and a half years old.

THE DEFEAT OF PARKER IS STUNNING

SPECIAL TO THE BOSTON AMERICAN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt was elected yesterday by a majority of the popular vote that no other President in recent years.

The President will have next in the electoral college to Judge Parker's 121, a majority of 174, which is more than Parker's total vote. This is thirty-three more than McKinley received four years ago.

There are no doubtless States today, it swept every Northern and Western State by a great increase in population and vote.

Maryland and West Virginia from across the River this. Parker got the vote of the so-called solid South.

It is known that in the home State of both candidates was about 100,000. McKinley-Governor Hughes was swept in the east of the tidal wave by 75,000 plurality.
